

Parts of an Opera Tab Book

Cut the pages along the solid outer lines. Cut away the indicated areas to form tabs of varying size on each page. Stack the pages in order with cover on top and staple along the left side.

<h1>Parts of an Opera</h1>
Orchestral Music	REMOVE THIS AREA (Cut away so you have just a tab left)
Voice	REMOVE THIS AREA

BLANK cover for the child who loves to draw.

Parts of an Opera

Story

Costumes

REMOVE THIS AREA

Scenery

REMOVE

Cut out the circle and fold the three flaps in on the dotted lines. Tuck the last flap under to close the minibook.

Performers in the Opera

then

now

Then and Now
Split
Match
-book

Cut out the book on its outer solid line. Fold matchbook style. Then cut on blue dotted line to form two flaps.

Inside explain the difference between the old use of the libretto and the modern use of subtitles or supertitles.

then

now

BLANK version for the child who loves to draw.